Proctor (to be signed by the Exam Proctor): _____

RE-TEST EXPLANATION

Re-test Policy:

Students will be allowed up to two additional attempts to obtain passing scores for the written examination and for hands-on. Re-tests must be complete within two weeks. Opportunity will be provided for students to review training materials and ask questions of the instructor prior to each re-test. Students who fail the second re-test will be required to re-take the entire course. For students who initially fail the course and then pass upon the retest, an explanation of testing and review procedures will be provided and kept along with the other pertinent information in the course file. Re-tests shall entail completion of the entire exam. Students shall not have access to any previous exam answer sheets.

Re-test Procedure Documentation (check all as appropriate):

- Student failed initial exam. Examination was repeated and test results are documented on the re-test answer sheet. The re-test answer sheet is attached to the original.
- Student failed second attempt of the exam. Examination was repeated again and the test results are documented on a second re-test answer sheet. The second re-test answer sheet is attached to the original.
- Student failed third attempt of the exam and was informed that they would have to repeat the course prior to re-taking the examination.
